DANGEREUSES

JUNE 2, 1971

#19

LIAISONS DANGEREUSES, incorporating brontosaurus, is typed, Game-mastered and edited by Leonard Lakofka, 1806 N. Richmond St. Chicago Ill. 60647 (312-342-6857). Game # 3 is edited by Chris Schleicher, 5122 W. Carmen, Chicago Ill. and currently appears in ATLANTIS. LD 10 is Game-mastered by Mark Nyderek, 6443 S. Talman, Chicago Ill.

Liaisons Dangereuses is affiliated with the N3F DD, the IFWDS, and is a member of the DIPLOMACY ASSOCIATION. LD is not affiliated with IDD, a figment of the imagination of Mr. Buddy Tretick, to whom this issue is dedicated.

Game opening: LD # 14 is open for NOVICES only, game fee is $2.50 LD # 15 is open for all players, one player (Tom Gleaver) registered. Game fee $4.00 minus 50 ¢ for each of the following: membership in the IPW, N3F, DA or subscription to GG. LD # 13 is now closed--the first novice game, its number is 1971AT.

A letter from Buddy Tretick, 3702 Wendy Lane, Silver Spring Md. 20906

IF 3, 1970 AC

My Dear Leonard,

Once again you criticize other people without any concern for your own 'zine. I found wading through your last issue, as has been the case in all of your past issues, a hopeless cause. The games are poorly organized, with material running together into a blurr. And you have the gall to start another game. Maybe I will have to use Rod Walker tactics and send those poor unsuspecting players some good issues of a postal diplomacy magazine.

Under IF 3, you show the Italina army Trieste, and then show an Austtrian army Trieste as being defeated, annihilated and also unordered.
Gee, so many armies in one province. What kind of a game do you run anyway?

And, I fail to see where Russia has a fleet in the Baltic along with the German fleet in the Baltic. I suppose you know that even if Russia did have a fleet in the Baltic, it could not legally support an army in Bulgaria.

By the by, you did not list the fleet Black Sea, did you now?

And, what's more, any GM who requires Spring moves concurrent with Winter moves should be hung by the balls. Just who do you think you are anyway? Some kind of a GOD! How do you expect people to handle such a tremendous combination of conditional moves based on all of the possibilities of the winter builds and removals. (sic) I demand a separate season...if not, I will steal you (sic) games from you.
(That's what Red Walker does, isn't it?)

Germany order (sic) its units as follows:

Winter 1902no change....

Spring 1904 f bal-....

..... a sil-....

..... a.ber-....

..... a kie-....

A carbon of this letter is going to all of your enemies, in hopes that they will accept this as a letter to the editor and publish it.

Dear Mr. Tretlick:

I am sure the new players in LD # 13 will be delighted to get the free copies of CHAUSTARK or SHREVEN you are sending them. I am sure you aren't planning to send LA GUERRE and call it "a good.... postal diplomacy magazine."

The games in LD # 18, you fop, are in numerical order, something Volume V #6 of your rag could not quite manage--page 1 being on the back of page 10 and 2 being on the rear of page 9.

As for IF 3's adjudication:

An Italian is now located in TRI. Austrian A Tri was unordered in retreat and, therefore, /A/ from the SPRING move, as noted by the letter "sp '03" printed after the move. Since you are quick to note others types, and not you own, of which there are scores per issue ((V-10 page 7: F son s a smy-ank--no orders for mommy and daddy this season?//)), plus choice illiteracies ((page 5, "supported by LA GUERRE, it's editor and gamemaster, and, it's unlimited resources.") ), you might note that HAL and HLA differ by a single letter inversion. (that means A and L are turned around Buddy, I don't want you to think I'm calling you an obscene name.)

As to builds and removals with a spring move:

Thanks for your spring moves--I'm glad you "demand" a separate season and then send Sp. '04 moves which are not dependant on any of the builds of any of the other players. Hard, wasn't it?

Finally, when it comes to calls of thief, I think you had not be the one to call anyone names. You claimed the IFW OPEN fees because some "8-12 players called Me (that's you Buddy) collect to find out about the OPEN." Well Buddy, had IFW the money we could seek to obtain the telephone company's records to see if there were 8-12 calls, and then ask the callers (if any) to sign an affidavit stating IF they called you because of the OPEN.

I hope my "enemies" publish your letter--it makes you into even a bigger ass than I had though you were...and I thought you were a big ass!

Best, Lenard

player votes required:

Mr. Brenton ver ploeg states that he did not, in the fall of 1905, order a pic-hol. I claim that he did, BUT I threw the records away, inadvertantly, with the old moves from seasons of other games that were already in later seasons. This was my error, and thus I can not prove Brenton miswrote his orders, although I claim he did.

Mr. Tulp has dropped out of the game, therefore, only Mr. Ver Ploeg, Mr. L'Heureux, and Mr. Schleicher remain. Please answer these questions with a signed and dated carbon to Rod Walker.

1) shall Fall 1905 orders for Germany read A ruhr-hol and the entire move be readjusted using that move?

2) Regardless of the official record for Fall 1905, will all three players agree to the following results:

- Winner: Russia, Lucien L'Heureux
 - 2nd: Turkey, Chris Schliecher
 - 3rd: Germany, Brenton Ver Ploeg
- (France is in civil disorder)

Deadline for a vote is June 20, 1971. If there is no concensus or if there are any missing votes play will begin with the Spring of 1906, for which I have moves from all three players.
